The presumption of the Board of Revenue that only 22 items of books, as stated in this office letter Rc.797/51 S.3 dated 31.1.51 are required for use in the newly constituted taluk office at Sandur, is correct. All these 22 books, some of which are reported to be not available in the Government Press, are absolutely essential for use in the taluk office Sandur. I have asked the Subordinate offices to report whether any spare copy of the books not available in the Government press at Madras, is available in their offices and I shall submit a further report shortly.
